

When God Makes Scribbles Beautiful

Sometimes, hard things happen. But God can take hard things—and make them beautiful. Using simple language, this lyrical picture book presents layers of Biblical truth that take the reader on a gentle journey of God's promises—inspiring hope and faith in His good and redemptive plan.

Publisher: B&H Kids
Author: Kate Rietema
Illustrator: Jennie Poh
ISBN: 978-1087787664
Format: Hardcover picture book
Pages: 32
Ages: 5–7 years
Retail: $14.99 US
Publication date: March 19, 2024

KEY THEMES

- Grief
- Hope
- Biblical truths

B&H Kids is a division of Lifeway. For questions about ordering, call 1.800.251.3225 or email lifewaytrade@lifeway.com.

Downloadable activities available for free on the author's website.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Kate Rietema is the author of three children's books and nearly a hundred magazine articles and poems. She has five daughters through birth and adoption, and has been a mom to many others through foster care. Kate lives and writes in a happy red house in Michigan.

All the Babies: A First Book About Adoption

All the Babies is a sweet introduction to adoption, belonging, and how God makes every family special. This board book highlights eleven babies who represent various aspects of being adopted, and celebrates how all the babies are loved—forever and always.

Publisher: B&H Kids
Author: Kate Rietema
Illustrator: Judi Abbot
ISBN: 978-1430095408
Format: 8" x 8" board book
Pages: 18
Ages: 0–4 years
Retail: $12.99 US
Publication date: Oct. 22, 2024

KEY THEMES

- Adoption
- Diverse families
- Belonging

 @katerietema
 Kate Rietema – Children's Author
 krietema@gmail.com

www.katerietema.com